

A NEW TESTAMENT
BLUEPRINT
FOR THE CHURCH

John Moore
& Ken Neff

Foreward by Howard G. Hendricks

A New Testament Blueprint for the Church

Contents

Chapter

Foreword

Section 1 The Dilemma of Traditions, or But We Have Always Done It This Way

1. The Traditional Setting
2. Typical Solutions to Traditional Problems

Section 2 Biblical Alternative for Church Ministry, or When All Else Fails, Read the Bible

3. Character and Conduct of the Church
 - Character of the Church
 - Nature of the Church
 - Unity, not Distinction
 - Unity, not Status
 - Conduct of the Church
 - The Commitment of Unity
 - The Contribution of Diversity
 - The Conduct of Bringing Believers to Maturity
4. Biblical Relationships
 - Crucial Building Blocks for the Church
 - Back to the Basics

Contents

- Loving the Lord
- Loving Your Neighbor
- Multidimensional Relationships in the Church
 - First-Dimensional Relationships
 - Second-Dimensional Relationships
 - Third-Dimensional Relationships
- Failure: The Seedplot for Growing Strong Lovers

- 5. Christ's Perspective on Christian Ministry
 - Disciple-Making and the Church
 - Disciple-Making: The Mandate
 - Disciple-Making: The Divine Two-step
 - Disciple-Making and the Final Comfort

- 6. Church Ministry in the Epistles
 - Ministry Guidelines After the Cross
 - Acts: Rediscovering Our Roots
 - Galatians: Guidelines for Growth
 - First Corinthians: Correcting Church Conduct
 - Reproducing Maturity: Avoiding the Spiritual Generation Gap

- Section 3 Biblical Aspects of Church Ministry, or the Main Thing Is that the Main Thing Always Remains the Main Thing

- 7. Organization and Meetings of the Church
 - Organization of the Church
 - The Universal Church
 - The City Church
 - The House Church
 - Body Ministries: Independent or Interdependent
 - New Testament Church Meeting
 - Jewish Roots for the New Testament Meeting
 - Heritage of the New Testament Meeting
 - History of the New Testament Meeting
 - The Meeting: Building up One Church, or One Another

- 8. Leadership in the Church
 - Biblical Principles of Male Leadership and Ministry
 - Leadership in the Old Testament and the Gospels
 - Leadership Principles in the New Testament
 - Leadership: Building up One Man, or One Another
 - Biblical Principles of Female Leadership and Ministry

- 9. Spiritual Gifts for the Church
 - Distributions of Spiritual Gifts
 - Church Growth Begins with Unity
 - Church Growth Requires Unity and Diversity
 - Church Growth Brings Maturity
 - Description of Spiritual Gifts

Contents

The Challenge: Discernment and Discovery
The Culmination: Gifts That Result in Relationships

- 10. Biblical Education in the Home and the Church
 - Biblical Teaching: The Model and Method
 - The Teaching Process in the Home
 - The Teaching Process in the Church
 - Spiritual Maturity: The Learning Model for Life Transformation
 - The Learning Process in the Home
 - The Learning Process in the Church

Section 4 Translating Theology into Practice, or How to be Biblical Even If It Hurts

- 11. Transforming an Established Church
 - Where Do We Start?
 - Decision-making and the Church
 - Principles of Transition for the Church
 - What Can We Do?
 - Phase One: Checking the Blueprints
 - Phase Two: Leadership Development
 - Phase Three: Developing Biblical Roots
 - Phase Four: Developing Biblical Fruit
- 12. Beginning a New Church
 - Where Do We Start?
 - Four Case Studies
 - The Dilemma of Location
 - The Dearth of Leadership
 - Where Are We Going?
 - The Church in Community and Celebration
 - Establishing Ministry Credentials for the Church
- 13. Conclusion

Providing Resources for Rethinking & Implementing
Biblical Principles and Practices

LeaderQuest®

*1904 Windjammer
St. Augustine, FL
32084
904•808•8631*

*E-mail:
neff@leaderquest.org*

*Web site:
www.leaderquest.org*