

A NEW TESTAMENT
BLUEPRINT
FOR CHURCH
LEADERSHIP

John Moore
& Ken Neff

A New Testament Blueprint for Church Leadership

Contents

Chapter

Section 1 The Dilemma of Traditions, or But We Have Always Done It This Way

1. The Traditional Setting
2. Typical Solutions to Traditional Problems

Section 2 Biblical Leadership Corrected, or What Pastors Are Not

3. Biblical Leadership: Distinct From the Ministry of Prophet
 - The Kingdom of God—Who is in Charge
 - Prophets Then and Now—Who is to Know
 - The Old Testament Prophet
 - The New Testament Prophet
 - Christ is the Answer—But Pastors as Prophets is the Wrong Question
4. Biblical Leadership: Distinct From the Model of Preaching
 - The Power of the Pulpit
 - The Peril of the Pulpit
 - The Problem of Content
 - The Problem of Context
 - The Problem of Commitment
 - Christ is the Answer—But Pastors as Preachers is also the Wrong Question

Contents

Section 3 Biblical Leadership Clarified, or What Pastors Are

5. The Biblical Leader: Elders Who Pastor, and Who Teach
 - Elders as Pastors
 - Pastors as Leaders
 - Pastors as Feeders and Protectors
 - Elders as Teachers
 - Teachers as Oral Instructors: Verbalizing the Truth
 - Teachers as Moral Examples: Visualizing the Truth
 - Elders as Pastor—Teachers, Not Superstars
6. The Biblical Leader: What They Teach
 - Israel: How Odd of God to Choose the Jew
 - One Nation Under God
 - Of Myths and Men: The Naked King Exposed
 - The Lordship of Christ: Good Answers to Good Questions
 - Church Leaders: How Odd of God to Choose Us, Too

Section 4. Biblical Leadership Committed, or How Pastors Lead

7. Motivation: Strategists, Salesmen, or Servants
 - Church Leaders as Strategists
 - Church Leaders as Salesmen
 - Church Leaders as Servants
8. Authority: How Far Should I Follow
 - Thinking Properly: Critical Minds, Not Critical Hearts
 - Doing Rightly: Interdependence More Than Independence
 - Authority: Difficult to Do, Not to Understand

Section 5 Biblical Leadership Completed, or How A Church Grows Up

9. How To Grow a Church
 - Church Growth: Essentials for Raising a Healthy Body
 - First Ingredient: The Will of God
 - Second Ingredient: Believers Who Work Together for Common Goals
 - Third Ingredient: Elders Who Really Pastor, and Who Really Teach
 - Fourth Ingredient: The Holy Spirit
 - Church Growth: Meeting Together to Grow People
10. Evangelism: Replacing Custom With Christian Character
 - Christian Custom: Error Grown Old
 - Obstacle #1: A Christian Walk Without the Work
 - Obstacle #2: A Church Flock that Forgets the Focus
 - Obstacle #3: A Christian Talk that Trains by Technique
 - Christian Character: Evangelism by Life and Word
 - Evangelism: Spontaneous, and Supernatural

Contents

11. Church Discipline: Dealing With Sin in Family Relationships
 - The Process: Living Wisely as Obedient Servants
 - The Procedure: Loving Confrontation as Discipline
 - Step One: A Loving Confrontation
 - Step Two: Confirmation by Witnesses
 - Step Three: Cooperation as a Church
 - Step Four: Consistency in the Community
 - The Product: Leaders and Believers Who Obey the Lord

 12. Christian Giving: Games, Goals, and Grace
 - Games Leaders Play—for Earthly Rewards
 - Four Score and Seven Years Ago
 - Letting History Be our Teacher, Not our Thinker
 - Goals Leaders Promote—on Questionable Grounds
 - Money, and the Message of Malachi
 - Giving, and the Program of Faith Promise
 - Grace Giving as the Model for Leaders and Believers
 - Christian Giving: Gifts of Gratitude

 13. Conclusion
- End Notes

Providing Resources for Rethinking & Implementing
Biblical Principles and Practices

LeaderQuest®

*1904 Windjammer
St. Augustine, FL
32084
904•808•8631*

*E-mail:
neff@leaderquest.org*

*Web site:
www.leaderquest.org*