Against Christian Myths

TRUTH the other side of a MYTH

Pew Forum's 2010 US Religious Knowledge Survey reveals that only 19 percent of Protestants believe that salvation is through faith alone. The overwhelming majority require a combination of faith and works. Unfortunately the evangelical church is inundated with the teaching that works are necessary for salvation. Gaining, proving, or sustaining salvation by works is in fact a myth, not supported from Scripture. That teaching is a perversion of God's Truth, misleading, distorting, and confusing God's communication to the lost world and the Church..

We must HOLD FAST to the Truth of God's Word concerning Saving Faith!

A Myth turns Truth upside down. The distinctions between Myth and Truth about Saving Faith addressed in this work are:

Myth	Truth
It's Always about Heaven and Hell	Salvation Is Past, Present, & Future
Faith Is Active	Faith Is Passive
Faith Is a Tricky Word	Faith Is Simple Trust
Faith Is Distinguished by Head & Heart	Head & Heart Are Used Interchangeably
Faith Causes Salvation	God Is the Cause of Salvation
Faith Is a Decision	Faith Is a Persuasion
Only the Totally Committed Need Apply	Only Childlike Trust Is Required
No Salvation without Rehabilitation	Saved Just as You Are
Surrender All to Be Saved	Surrender Is Purposed for Believers
Perseverance Required	All Who Believe Have Eternal Life
Works Required	Eternal Life Is a Gift
Co-Payments Required	Jesus Paid It All
